From the President

Happy New Year! How quickly the years seem to pass nowadays. I hope you all had a joyous and happy Christmas, with enough restful times that you are now ready to face the New Year with enthusiasm. Let us all welcome the new people that have found their way to Lighthouse.

Our Thursday evening programs coming up are looking very exciting. The Message Nights held on the first Thursday of each month offer the evidence that life continues after death. Mindfulness evenings on the second Thursday of each month help each person to find healing and peace. The varied topics covered in our Mini Workshops on the third Thursday of each month are always interesting. Open Circles on the fourth Thursday of the month are for your own spiritual development. When there is a fifth Thursday in the month, there is a special program planned. Thank you to all of the volunteers that make these evenings happen.

We are always looking for volunteers to help with bringing goodies for Sunday service, helping with Thursday Evening programs or sitting on the Board of Directors. Please see someone with a gold badge to find out more. I hope 2019 is a year of Blessings for you.

Complexity of Communication

Ever thought about the problems we have today with communicating with family, friends or business associates. Each requires a different attitude and approach.

For example would you talk to your mother the same way you would talk to a boss? Think of the factors involved—with mom, we probably know her much better than an employer and in a far friendlier attitude, less formal.

When it comes to communicating with the spirit world mediums have a whole other complexity. When communicating with a family member or friend of yours the medium does not know the individual from the spirit world nor their “closeness” to you. Diplomacy is number one. Secondly comes the ability of the medium to build the rapport between those on this side and the other side.

So is the spirit experienced in communication? Have they ever come to communicate before? What state of mind were they in before passing and are in now? Were they good at communicating with you before they passed? All of this pertains to the quality of sitting that will occur.

Mediums can only offer what is given from the other side. They are not miracle workers—they are a bridge between two worlds—the one you live in now and the one your loved one is in. Your loved ones do not change instantly as they cross. Over time they must have the desire and ability to communicate in a way that can be accepted by their loved one here. Their memories and yours may differ. Their take on your life may be different as well.

Most mediums request of the spirit world that which is needed for the recipient of the message. They are not asking for what the sitters may be looking for.

Take what comes from the spirit world with an open mind and heart and be so glad that loved ones are not gone from our lives only our vision.
